

Bude Canal & Harbour Society – Privacy Information Statement

Bude Canal & Harbour Society holds contact information of individuals and bodies who have expressed an interest in the activities of the Society. This may include e-mail addresses as well as name, postal address and telephone number. This information is stored on the society's computer which is protected by a password known only to the Membership Secretary and a named deputy (for emergency use only). It may be used to provide information about forthcoming events and to give notification of the publication of the Society's newsletter on its website. This information will not be shared with any other organisation or member and it will be retained until the owner withdraws their consent by contacting the Membership Secretary at the address shown below. It will then be removed from the society's records.

Anyone can gain access to his/her own personal information held by the society by contacting members@bude-canal.co.uk or writing to The Membership Secretary at 17 Cricket Park, Marhamchurch, Bude, Cornwall EX23 0EL.

The data stored is only that which is collected from the individual. Individuals are therefore encouraged to inform the society of any changes to their contact details such as postal address, telephone number or e-mail address so that we can remain in contact.

By giving this information individuals are deemed to have given consent for the Society to hold such information according to the conditions mentioned above.
